Two-Reel Universal Comedy

WHAT'S THE USE!

Featuring JOE MURPHY as Andy Gump and FAY TINCHER as Min.

Andy's boss gives him a two weeks vacation, warning him to back on time. Andy breaks the good news to Min and Chester, and gets out his gun in anticipation of hunting. To show Min it isn't loaded, he points at the parlor clock, pulls the trigger, and blows the clock to pieces.

At last they get started in Andy's disguised Ford. Andy talks back to a policeman and spends the next five days of his vacation in jail. Min meets him at the jail and they start again. After several punctures and pranks by little Chester, they pitch their tent for the night.

Andy gets up for a drink of water and falls over a steep cliff. Min finds him in the morning hanging to a bush by his nightgown. Andy is rescued with difficulty, with the aid of the Ford and a steer.

He goes hunting to bring back some fresh meat for supper. He shoots all his shells at a rabbit and finally catches it with his bare hands only to lose it again. His gun goes off accidentally- a bird drops, and he rushes home with it to show Min.

He sees by the calendar hanging on the Ford that his vacation is up that day. They pile into the car without packing a thing and speed like mad for the city. Andy rushes into the office only to find he is five days ahead of time. Little Chester had torn off five sheets to light the fire.
